

A detective story about a smartphone theft

Chek Sin Wah, Candy (6B)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, a woman came out of Rose Restaurant. A man took her smartphone and ran away quickly.

Then, the woman was afraid. She went into the restaurant and called Detective Mel to catch the thief.

After ten minutes, Detective Mel arrived. She asked the woman to describe the thief. The thief was a young man in the sandals, white T-shirt and the jeans, with the sunglasses and short hair.

Soon, Detective Mel found the thief who matched the woman's descriptions and asked the woman for the details. The men looked similar, so the woman felt confused.

Suddenly, Detective Mel thought of a good idea. He asked the woman to give the phone number to him. Then, one of the men's smartphones rang.

In the end, the woman found her smartphone. Detective Mel did another good thing.

