A birthday party for Mum

My sister and I organized a birthday party for Mum. I was going through the to-do list. My sister decided to write a birthday card and tidy the living room. I decided to buy some snacks and a cake.

Next, I went to ABC supermarket to buy the snacks and drinks. ‘Have you bought the birthday card yet?’ my sister asked me. ‘No, I haven’t bought it yet. I will buy it now.’ I replied.

In the evening, ‘Have you bought a cake yet?’ my sister asked me. I said, ‘Oh, no! I forgot it. Mum, I am sorry. I will buy it now!’

In the end, I bought a cake immediately. I bought a blueberry cake because I knew mum likes blueberries. We were happy at the party!
