

My brave dog saved a lady!

Believe it or not, even a small dog can do a great job!

Yesterday, I walked my dog Cenny in the park near my home in the afternoon. The environment was peaceful. I felt relaxed.

Suddenly, I saw a robber. He was pointing a knife at a woman. He wanted to rob her. I was frightened. 'Don't hurt me! I will give you all my belongings,' the woman cried. The woman handed over her handbag. She was scared.

Then, the robber ran away quickly after grabbing the woman's handbag. Cenny chased after him and barked at him. The robber was annoyed and tried to beat Cenny. It was angry and bit the robber.

In the end, I called 999 and the police came and arrested the robber. The police bought some treats for Cenny. It was overjoyed. The woman got back her handbag and thanked me for calling the police. I was delighted.
