

A family camp

Hu Yixin, Eva (5C)

Spencer went to a family camp with his parents. Last summer holiday, Spencer and his family looked at a noticeboard. They wanted to join an activity. Spencer and a boy with a cap became friends. The boy's name was Sam.

Spencer wanted to ride the horse. 'Would you like to join the horse-riding class with us?' Spencer asked Sam. 'Yes, I'd love to,' Sam replied. 'Have you ever ridden a horse?' Spencer asked. Sam said, 'Yes, I have ridden a horse three times. It was so exciting. You will like it!'

Then, they learnt how to ride horses. They felt happy and excited.

At that time, Sam said, 'Let's race! The winner can get an ice cream.' Spencer said, 'Good idea!' In the race, they ran fast and fast but boom! Spencer fell from the horse! His mum and dad took him up and sent him to the clinic. Luckily, he didn't hurt seriously.

In the clinic, Spencer said, 'I will win next time!'
