You have found a genie in a bottle. The genie has agreed to grant you one wish to help those in Hong Kong. What is a major issue in Hong Kong that needs to be fixed? How would you use your wish to help solve this problem? -Asia Children Education Association

Hong Kong people do not have enough time to sleep. The children have lots of homework to do every day and the adults have to work for long hours to earn a living. I would tell the genie that we were always lack of sleep, feeling tired and even exhausted.

‘Hey genie, I wish that people in Hong Kong can have a great sleep!’ I shouted.

‘Ahh, what a great sleep! My wish becomes true!’ I laughed loudly. But when I looked around, I didn’t know where I was. All the buildings were old and dusty. There are bougainvillea climbing and growing along the grounds and around the buildings. Grasses covered all over the roads and streets. Thorny brushes were along the highways.

‘Oh, what happened?’ I was shocked.

‘It’s a great sleep, isn’t it?’ the genie appeared suddenly. ‘You and all the Hong Kong people have been slept for a hundred year. You are the first one to wake up. Do you want to sleep again?’ the genie asked cunningly.

I couldn’t believe what had happened!

The Shepherd Boy and the Wolf

Xia Tianyu, Rain (6A)

Once upon a time, there was a village in which lived a shepherd boy. He took a flock of sheep to the mountain every day.

One day, the shepherd boy was bored. 'I'm so bored. What can I do to have some fun?' asked the shepherd boy. After ten seconds, he said, 'Ah! I know what to do.' He decided to play some tricks on the villagers. 'Wolf! Wolf! A big bad wolf! Please help!' the shepherd boy shouted. When the villagers heard the cry of wolf, they all ran to the pasture to help the shepherd boy. When they came to the mountain, there was only a boy. 'Ha! Ha! Ha! There's no wolf. It's just a trick!' said the shepherd boy. The fooled villagers were mad and went down from the pasture. They said angrily, 'What a wicked boy!'

The next day, the again. He wanted to 'Wolf! Wolf! A Help!' shouted the villagers came to the 'Where's the wolf, There's no wolf! the shepherd boy shepherd boy felt bored trick the villagers again. real hungry wolf! Help! shepherd boy. The mountain and asked, boy?' 'Ha! Ha! Ha! How foolish you are!' laughed at the villagers.

When they found out that the shepherd boy had lied again, they were very upset. They said, 'We will not believe you anymore!' Instead of feeling ashamed, the shepherd boy kept on laughing.

After some days, a bad wolf came. The shepherd boy cried, 'Help! The wolf came! It wants to eat all my sheep!' As expected, no one helped the boy. The villagers thought, 'The boy still lies to us.' The wolf caught all the sheep and said, 'Wow! A lot of delicious food. Yummy!' The boy said sadly, 'Please help. The wolf is eating my sheep. The wolf...Oh no! All my sheep have been eaten by the wolf.'

In the end, the shepherd boy felt very sad and cried. The moral of the story is we should not tell lies. Otherwise, no one will trust you.

A Diary: A Charitable Event

Friday

Sunny and hot

Today, I joined an event called 'Flag Selling Day'. I joined it with my parents. The event took place in Sheung Shui. We were happy because we were going to do something meaningful.

First, we took the flag bag and the flags. Then, we went to the MTR station where we sold flags. At the first thirty minutes, nobody came to buy the flags. I thought it was meaningless. But Mum told me to be patient, so I waited patiently.

After a while, more and more people were on the street. Also, more people bought the flags. I was happy that I met so many kind and generous people.

Finally, we went back to the place where I took the items and gave them back to the staffs of the Community Chest. I was tired but satisfied because I could help the people in need. There is a saying: Helping others is the foundation of happiness. I will join more meaningful events in the future.

'Yes, I can help you live forever. But, you need to obey my rules,' replied the magician. 'What are the rules?' asked Wu Kang. 'You need to do housework and find food for me,' said the magician.

Although Wu Kang promised the magician, he was lazy, he did not keep his promise. The magician was angry and scolded Wu Kang. 'You did not keep your promise. You're dishonest. I'll send you to the moon. If you chop down the big tree on the moon, I'll let you come back.'

Taking Care of My Grandpa's Dog

Zhang Yun Tung, Jacob (6B)

Last week, my Grandpa joined a three-day tour. He couldn't take his pet to go on the tour with him so he wanted me to look after it. Although I have never looked after a pet before, I promised I'll try my best to take care of it. Grandpa said, 'Be good, Bobo.' Bobo wagged his tail happily.

I fed Bobo and bathed him every day. Bobo was enjoyable. We got along very well. On the third day, I took Bobo to the park but he ran away suddenly. 'Bobo, why are you running away? Where are you going?' I shouted loudly like a crazy lion. I thought, 'If I lose Bobo, Grandpa will be very sad. I have to catch it back.' Therefore, I ran as quickly as I could.

I kept running until I reached Grandpa's home. I heard a voice from Grandpa's home and then I looked inside. It was Bobo! I found that Bobo missed Grandpa so much and he ran back to Grandpa's home to find him. I thought Bobo was sad so I tried to make some funny tricks to cheer it up. Luckily, Bobo was happy again and he followed me to go home.

When Grandpa came back and took Bobo back, I felt a bit sad. However, Bobo was so excited and he jumped up and down around Grandpa. Finally, I said Goodbye to Bobo and I would visit him more often.

Yip Chiu Hei, Kelvin (6C)

Dear Eric,

How is school today? I was absent from school this morning. I had a fever and a runny nose. I did not feel well. So my mother took me to see the doctor, she was also very worried.

When we arrived the clinic, I saw many patients. One person kept coughing, another girl had a stomachache, she was sad. I waited for an hour in the clinic because there were many people. I waited impatiently. An hour later, I could see the doctor. When the doctor saw me, he checked my body temperature with a thermometer. My body temperature was 39°C. I was scared. The doctor said, 'You must take medicine on time and take more rest.' I said 'Okay!'

I stayed at home for three days. Three days later, I recovered because my mother took care of me every day when I was sick. I thanked my mother very much.

Please let me know what homework I need to do. Take care too.

Planning for a Fun Fair

Chan Tsz Tung, Vivian (5A)

To: myclassteacher@swhps.edu.hk

From: pupilabc@swhps.edu.hk

Subject: The Fun Fair

Dear Miss Wan,

I am writing to tell you our planning for the fun fair. We want to hold a fun fair in order to raise money to fund our school library with more books. Our aim is to raise one hundred thousand Hong Kong dollars, enough to provide the library with a sufficient range of books. We want to hold the fun fair on Saturday afternoon, so that more people will be able to attend after work.

We want to hold the fun fair at the school playground, so that we can set up more booths there. We want to incorporate a lucky draw and a magic show, as part of the entertainment at the fun fair. One of our goal is to invite a pop singer to perform on the stage at the fun fair. Selling food and drinks can also help us to raise more money. We will also encourage pupils to donate any old books or unwanted toys to us, so that an auction can be held at the fair.

I hope that we can raise more money than we aim to, so that the library will have more books for the students to read. I think the fair will be fun. Do you have any suggestions for more fundraising activities? Please give me some feedback.

Kind Regards,
Vivian

My Collection

Candy Zhang (5A)

Dear Mary,

How are you? I like collecting things. Let me tell you about my collection.

I like collecting key rings. I have collected them for six years. I put them in a purple box that is incredibly special to me. I like collecting keys rings because they don't only come in various shapes and sizes, but are also extremely beautiful and useful.

I have around twenty key rings. I like the golden key ring the most because it is in the shape of the iconic Eiffel Tower. I bought it in 2013 when I was on vacation in Paris. The uniqueness of the key ring was initially the reason I began collecting key rings.

I want to collect shells next because they are very beautiful. What things do you collect? Please write back soon.

Yours,
Candy

A Reminder about the Sai Kung Trip

Yueng Hei Yuen, Dennis (5A)

Dear Amy,

I would like to remind you that we will go to Sai Kung tomorrow for the field trip. The rest of this email will tell you what you need to know about this trip.

We will meet at the Sha Tin Bus Terminal at half past eight tomorrow morning. We will get to Sai Kung by bus. You will need to bring enough water, due to the hot weather. You will also need to bring your own lunch because the school will not provide food for you. You need to wear a light coloured T-shirt, a hat and a pair of sunglasses because it will be hot and sunny tomorrow.

We will go hiking and playing ball games in the morning. After lunch, we will take a short break and play some games as a group. We will also have an opportunity to watch the sunset! I think tomorrow will be amazing.

However, if it rains heavily tomorrow, the trip will be cancelled and postponed to next week. If that is the case, another email will be sent out with a new date for the trip.

See you tomorrow.

Kind Regards,
Dennis

A Surprising Day

Zheng Yin Ki, Matthew (5A)

It was Ben's birthday today. When he was taking a bath in the bathroom, the telephone began to ring. He hurried out of the bathroom and rushed to answer the phone. Coincidentally, the doorbell rang. Ben wondered why the telephone and the doorbell would ring at the same time. He thought it was strange, and he was confused.

As he opened the door, a puppy started sprinting into the house. He was shocked and surprised. Suddenly, the sound of Ben's mother and father singing 'Happy Birthday' filled the whole house. A smile came over Ben's face.

'Thank you!' he said to his parents. They had the birthday party in the living room. Ben was happy, as were his parents.

Suddenly, the puppy jumped onto the table and licked the cake. It was a moment that Ben knew he would remember for the rest of his life. It was a wonderful day for Ben.

The Lion and the Mouse

Zhang Yubo, Derek (5A)

Once upon a time, there was a Lion and a Mouse, who both lived in a forest. One day, the tiny, little mouse jumped up and played on the Lion's belly.

'Why are you so annoying?' the Lion yelled angrily. 'Oh! My dear Lion King, can you spare me? I promise I will help you someday!' the Mouse begged. 'That is the stupidest idea I have ever heard! How can such a tiny mouse help me? I'm big and you're small. Luckily, I'm already full, so you're free to go,' said the Lion.

One day, the Lion was caught by the hunter's trap. 'Who can help me?' the Lion cried helplessly. The Mouse heard the Lion's voice, so he immediately ran to see what had happened. After a while, the Mouse found the Lion. The Mouse bit the rope, and at last, the Lion escaped quickly. 'Thank you! You're my best friend now!' said the Lion.

And ever since then, the Mouse and the Lion became best friends.

A Journal: An Unforgettable Day

Hot and cloudy

Today was a wonderful day because my little sister, Candy, was born.

I didn't even get the chance to brush my teeth or wash my face this morning, because I had to quickly rush to the hospital.

Minutes later, I arrived at the hospital. I first went to the reception to ask the nurse which room my mother was in. Then, I ran to the ward in which she was staying in. Since I was in such a rush, I forgot to knock on the door.

'Be quiet, Candy is sleeping,' Mom whispered. Suddenly, I heard a loud cry from Candy, so I began to sing a song to calm her down. It did the exact opposite, she cried louder. Then, Mom proceeded to carry Candy in her arms, as she fed her milk and planted a kiss on her forehead and said, 'She's probably just hungry.' Candy had immediately gone silent.

From today's experience, I realized that my mother is amazing, and I need to be more thankful for her. This was such an unforgettable day for me!

My Collection

Camilla Zhou (5B)

Dear Mary,

How are you? I like collecting things. Let me tell you about my collection.

I have collected key rings since I was five. I have collected about fifty key rings.

I put my key rings in a beautiful box at home. My oldest key ring is a shell key ring. It was a gift from my mum for my fifth birthday. I have kept it since that day. I have red, pink, white, gold and orange key rings. I bought them from different countries. I have never lost them. I like collecting them because they are my best memories. The key rings are beautiful. My favourite key ring is my birthday gift. It has my name on it so it is unique.

I want to collect coins too because they are shiny. Do you like collecting things? Please write soon.

Love,
Camilla

Saturday 29 November

Sunny and cool

Today was a good day.

My school football team had a match with another team.

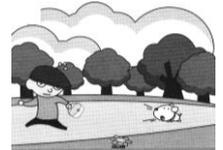

The match started at three o'clock in the afternoon. The weather was sunny and cool. At first, I didn't play very well but later I played better and better. Then, I helped Peter score a goal. I passed the ball to Peter and He kicked it hard into the goal. My team won in this game. Peter's cousin, Gary, came to watch this game. My coach, Mr. Lee, took us to a restaurant. We had pizza and soft drinks. I am very tired but I am happy.

A Story about a Bad Experience in the Park

Leung Yau Kwan, Kevin (5C)

Last night after dinner, I walked with my dog, Coco. I played ball games and jumped with her at a park. I felt tired but happy.

Suddenly, I saw a robber jump out from the bushes. He held a knife and shouted, 'Give me your wallet!' I was shaking and I felt scared. 'Don't kill me! I will give you my wallet,' I shouted.

Then, my dog ran to bite the robber. He was in pain and he ran away. I felt frightened.

I went to Ocean Park with my family today. It was the day I had been waiting for a long time.

In the morning, we got up very early. We got dressed quickly and went to Ocean Park by bus. At Ocean Park, we watched a dolphin show in the Ocean Theatre. The show was amazing. We took photos and drew pictures of the dolphins. Then, we rode on the cable car. The view was beautiful. I felt relaxed. Next, we went to watch the pandas. When I was watching the pandas, I lost my way. I could not find my mum and dad. I was scared. I asked the staff for help immediately. Luckily, the staff helped me find my mum and dad very soon. When I saw my mum and dad, I hugged them tightly. I was so grateful to see them again. Finally, we left the Ocean Park in the evening.

Although there was something bad had happened to me in the afternoon, I was still happy that I could go to Ocean Park with my parents today. I hope I can visit Ocean Park with my parents again in the near future.

Ma Yu Tong, Angel (5E)

Once upon a time, a lion was sleeping in the forest when a mouse played and jumped on the lion's tummy. The lion soon woke up and he wanted to swallow the mouse.

The mouse said, 'I am sorry! Forgive me this time, and I will not forget it. I promise to do something to you in the future.' Then the mouse went away.

After that, the lion fell into a trap one day. The mouse passed by. He saw the lion and bit the rope of the net. He bit and bit and the net was open. Finally, the mouse said, 'You can go out now.' The lion escaped from the net.

In the end, the lion and the mouse became good friends and since then, they lived happily together. The story teaches us to be helpful to people and they will help you in return one day.
