Before that, I spent one month learning and did many things. Now, I can tie my shoelaces and tidy my room by myself. It was not difficult to learn. My mum, dad, and sister are proud of me! I feel very happy and more confident.

I had a great day today.

Yesterday I went to buy a toy cat. It was so cute. I felt very happy holding the toy cat while walking out of the shop.

I brought it home, took it to my room and put batteries in it. The toy cat opened its eyes and said, 'Hello!' I was so amazed that it could speak. It also did dancing, singing, talking, running and walking.

The next morning, I woke up and got ready for school. After getting reading, I went to my toy room and put the cat in my school bag and went to the car. When it was play time at school, I took my toy cat out and played with my friends. We were all laughing because the teacher held my toy cat and spoke with a funny accent while dancing. I also bought toy cat food, just to pretend giving food to it to eat. It ate as if it was its last meal. My friends and I laughed so hard, we almost fell off from our seats!

The school drama show

4C Li Ching Long, Wilson

Cindy and Jack were student helpers of the school drama show yesterday. They were at the school hall preparing the chairs, then they started to decorate the school hall with stickers and balloons. They went to the back of the stage and prepared a lot of souvenirs.

Once the guests arrived, there were many parents with their children. Before the guests came to the school hall, Jack said, 'Hopefully we won't run out of souvenirs.' 'Right?' asked Cindy. And Cindy said, 'Maybe. I'm worried' When the guests came, the line was so long that it was even longer than the corridor. One by one, the souvenirs started disappearing.

Fifteen minutes later, the souvenirs were all gone. Then Cindy said, 'Oh no! All the souvenirs are gone. We don't have time to make more!' said Cindy frightenedly. Then Jack quickly thought of an idea and said, 'What about giving the guests books about capybaras? Look down there. There are many capybara toys and books! We can use them.' Then Cindy said, 'Good idea!'

At the end, the guests felt happy. But Jack and Cindy were too tired. They went back home with tired legs and rested for two days.

Getting lost

4C Yip Tsun Ming, Jamin

Phoebe and Annie were good friends. One day, Phoebe called Annie on her mobile phone and asked, 'What are you going to do tomorrow?' Annie replied, 'I'm free. How about playing badminton in the sports centre together tomorrow?' Phoebe said, 'Good idea.'

Then Phoebe asked, 'How do I get to the sports centre?' Annie told her, 'First, get out of Kwai Fong MTR Station Exit A. Then turn left and walk past the bakery. After that, turn right and walk across the road. The sports centre is right in front of you.'

The next day, Phoebe went to the sports centre, but she got lost on the way. She was very worried and started to panic. A few seconds later, she calmed down and remembered that she could use Google Maps. She searched for the Kwai Fong sports centre and found the directions.

In the end, Phoebe arrived at the sports centre, but Annie had been waiting for a long time. Annie asked, 'Why are you so late?' Phoebe replied, 'Can we talk about that later?' Then they went into the court.

Life then and now

5A Yeung Lai Ting, Grace

Life in the past and now is very different. In the past, people got news from the radio, but nowadays, most people watch the news on their tablets or smartphones. Before, people did not have digital cameras, so they could only take photos with film cameras. Now, it is easy to take photos with a digital camera or even a mobile phone.

In the old days, people used paper fans to keep cool. Today, we can use air-conditioners, which are much more comfortable. People used to listen to music on record players, but now we can listen to music on our mobile phones anytime and anywhere.

I prefer life nowadays because it is more convenient. There are many types of transport, like the MTR, buses, and taxis, so I can travel easily. Technology has made our lives easier and more enjoyable.

Life then and now

5A Hong Tongxi, Nathan

Things have changed a lot over the years. People's daily lives are different in the past and today. Nowadays, technology has changed the way we live in many ways.

In the past, people used paper fans to keep cool. They did not use air conditioners because they were not available. Today, especially in the 21st century, people can enjoy a comfortable room temperature with electric fans and air conditioners. Compared with paper fans, these appliances are faster and more effective.

In the past, people listened to radio programmes because television was not common. After televisions and mobile phones became popular, radio became less important. Nowadays, people often watch TV on tablets and smart TVs. So entertainment is more convenient than before.

In the past, people wrote letters to friends. Sending letters took a long time because they had to post them and wait. Now, people send messages immediately by mobile phones. Therefore, communication is much faster and easier.

In conclusion, I prefer today because technology makes our lives easier, more comfortable and more convenient.

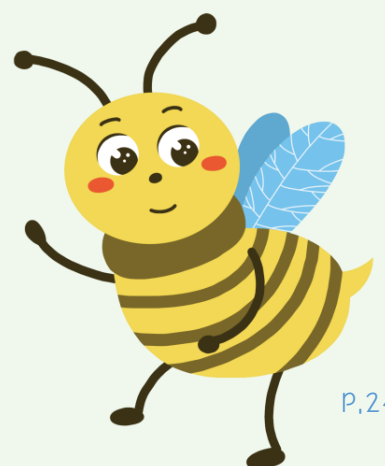

Zoe's eating habit

5A Tang Sum Yi, Zoe

Zoe had bad eating habits. She liked to eat meat, but she did not like vegetables or fruit. She ate a lot of meat every night, but she only ate a few vegetables and a little fruit. Mum said, "You should eat more healthy food. " Zoe felt unhappy and replied, "But I love eating meat. Both vegetables and fruit are not yummy! "

One day, Zoe and her parents went to a restaurant. They had a buffet dinner there. They all felt delighted. Zoe preferred a lot of meat to vegetables or fruit. She had too much oily and sweet food such as steak, cakes, fried chicken wings, sausages, French fries and ice cream. She also drank a lot of soft drinks too!

Later that night, Zoe did not feel well. Her stomach hurt. Her family was worried about her and took her to the hospital. Doctor said that Zoe should not eat too much meat and she needed to drink water instead of soft drinks. After taking medicine, Zoe felt better and became healthier. From then on, she always reminds herself to eat more healthy food.

Sunny

Today was my birthday. In the morning, my dad took me to go to a hotel to have buffet lunch. There were many kinds of delicious food. We enjoyed it very much. Then, we went to watch a movie in a cinema called 'Death Rose'. It was a horror film and I was excited!

In the afternoon, we went to a game center to play video games. When I went into the game center, I thought the music was too noisy, it was like a calamity! We played drifting games and some ball games. The games were fantastic and exciting.

Finally, we went cycling in the park. Suddenly, I saw my best friend, Mike! I shouted, 'Mike! It is so surprising to see you here!' He told me that he liked cycling too.

I used to go cycling once a month. Now, I go cycling three times a week because I love sports. I also want to meet Mike and cycle with him again.

In the evening, I ate a birthday cake with my family. I was very happy today. I hope I can celebrate my birthday with them again next year.

Foggy

Today after lunch, I went to the park with my dog, Ben. The weather was foggy, but I still wanted to play outside. Ben was very happy and ran around the grass. I think he is a very cute dog.

Suddenly, a man wearing a mask came to me. He said, "Put your wallet in this bag!" I was very scared and told him, "I did not bring my wallet." The man did not believe me and asked again, "Are you sure?" I felt very nervous.

At that moment, Ben barked loudly and bit the man's leg. The man shouted in pain and quickly ran away. After that, I called the police. Later, the police caught the robber. I felt very happy and proud of Ben. He is a brave dog.

My brave dog

5A Zhang Ching Hei, Heiley

Small dogs are wonderful and amazing. Yesterday, I was walking with my dog, Lily, in the park. I taught her some tricks. We were happy and relaxed.

While I was walking with Lily, I saw a robbery. The robber jumped out from the bushes. Suddenly, he was pointing a knife at a woman. "Don't hurt me! I'll give you all my things," she cried. She handed over her handbag in fear.

Just then, my dog Lily became very angry. She barked loudly at the robber and ran after him. The robber did not expect a dog to chase him. He looked very afraid and gave the woman back her bag.

At last, the woman was safe. She thanked Lily and me again and again. I was really proud of my brave dog. What an unforgettable day!

We forgot to buy the cake. We thought our Mum would be disappointed, but she comforted us and said, 'Don't worry, it was just a small mistake, it's okay.'

We sighed in relief. At the end, we all just ate the snacks and drinks I bought. It was delicious!

First, at my birthday party we ate pizza, sushi and drank cola. We ate the birthday cake. The birthday cake was delicious. Next, I blew out the candles, made a wish and we took photos. My friends and I played games.

Then, we sang the birthday song and exchanged gifts. My friends gave me a model kit. My mum and my grandma gave me Pokemon cards.

In the past, I used to play games five times a week. Now, I play games four times a week.

Eating at a Chinese restaurant

5D Wong Noki Yi, Olivia

This afternoon, I had lunch with my family in a Chinese restaurant. At the table next to us, there was a boy and his mum. At first, the boy spoke with food in his mouth which is impolite. Then he ran around the restaurant and threw a piece of bone on the floor. His mum talked loudly on the phone, disturbing other customers.

After a while, the boy knocked into a waiter who was carrying a bowl of noodles. The noodles spilled onto the boy and his mum. They felt really embarrassed. I felt annoyed by their improper actions.

In the end, the boy's mum apologized to the waiter and they cleaned up the mess. This story teaches us that we should always behave politely and follow restaurant rules when we dined out.

Life then and now

5D Lee Tsz Ho, Gavin

Great changes have taken place in our lives over the years. In the past, people lived a simple life. To learn about the news, people listened to the radio. They kept in contact with friends by writing letters. People listened to music on a record player and took photos with a film camera. They even kept cool with a paper fan in the hot summer.

Nowadays, our lives have become much easier and more comfortable. We can watch the latest news on our tablets. People send text messages on mobile phones to talk with friends anytime. We listen to music on MP3 players and take clear photos with digital cameras. Also, we can keep cool easily with an air-conditioner on hot days.

I prefer the life now. Life is easier, more comfortable and more convenient by using advanced technology.

Save the Earth

6A Chow Yuen Lam, Anna

Lily is a selfish person; she has never in her life donated a single dollar to charity. At school, she always refused to join the activities for raising money for charity.

One night, she watched a documentary about an earthquake in Japan. The victims' apartments shook violently, but Lily thought that the video was boring.

When it was her bedtime, she slept but had a nightmare. In her dream, she experienced an earthquake. Her home and many other houses were destroyed, and she had to live in a tent without any food. When she was cold, she didn't have a blanket. She had also lost her parents in that dream. She was so frightened that she woke up.

In the end, she said to herself, "I don't want anyone to experience this. From now on, I will donate to charity and help people in need."

Feeling sick

6A Lai Kei Yu, Mary

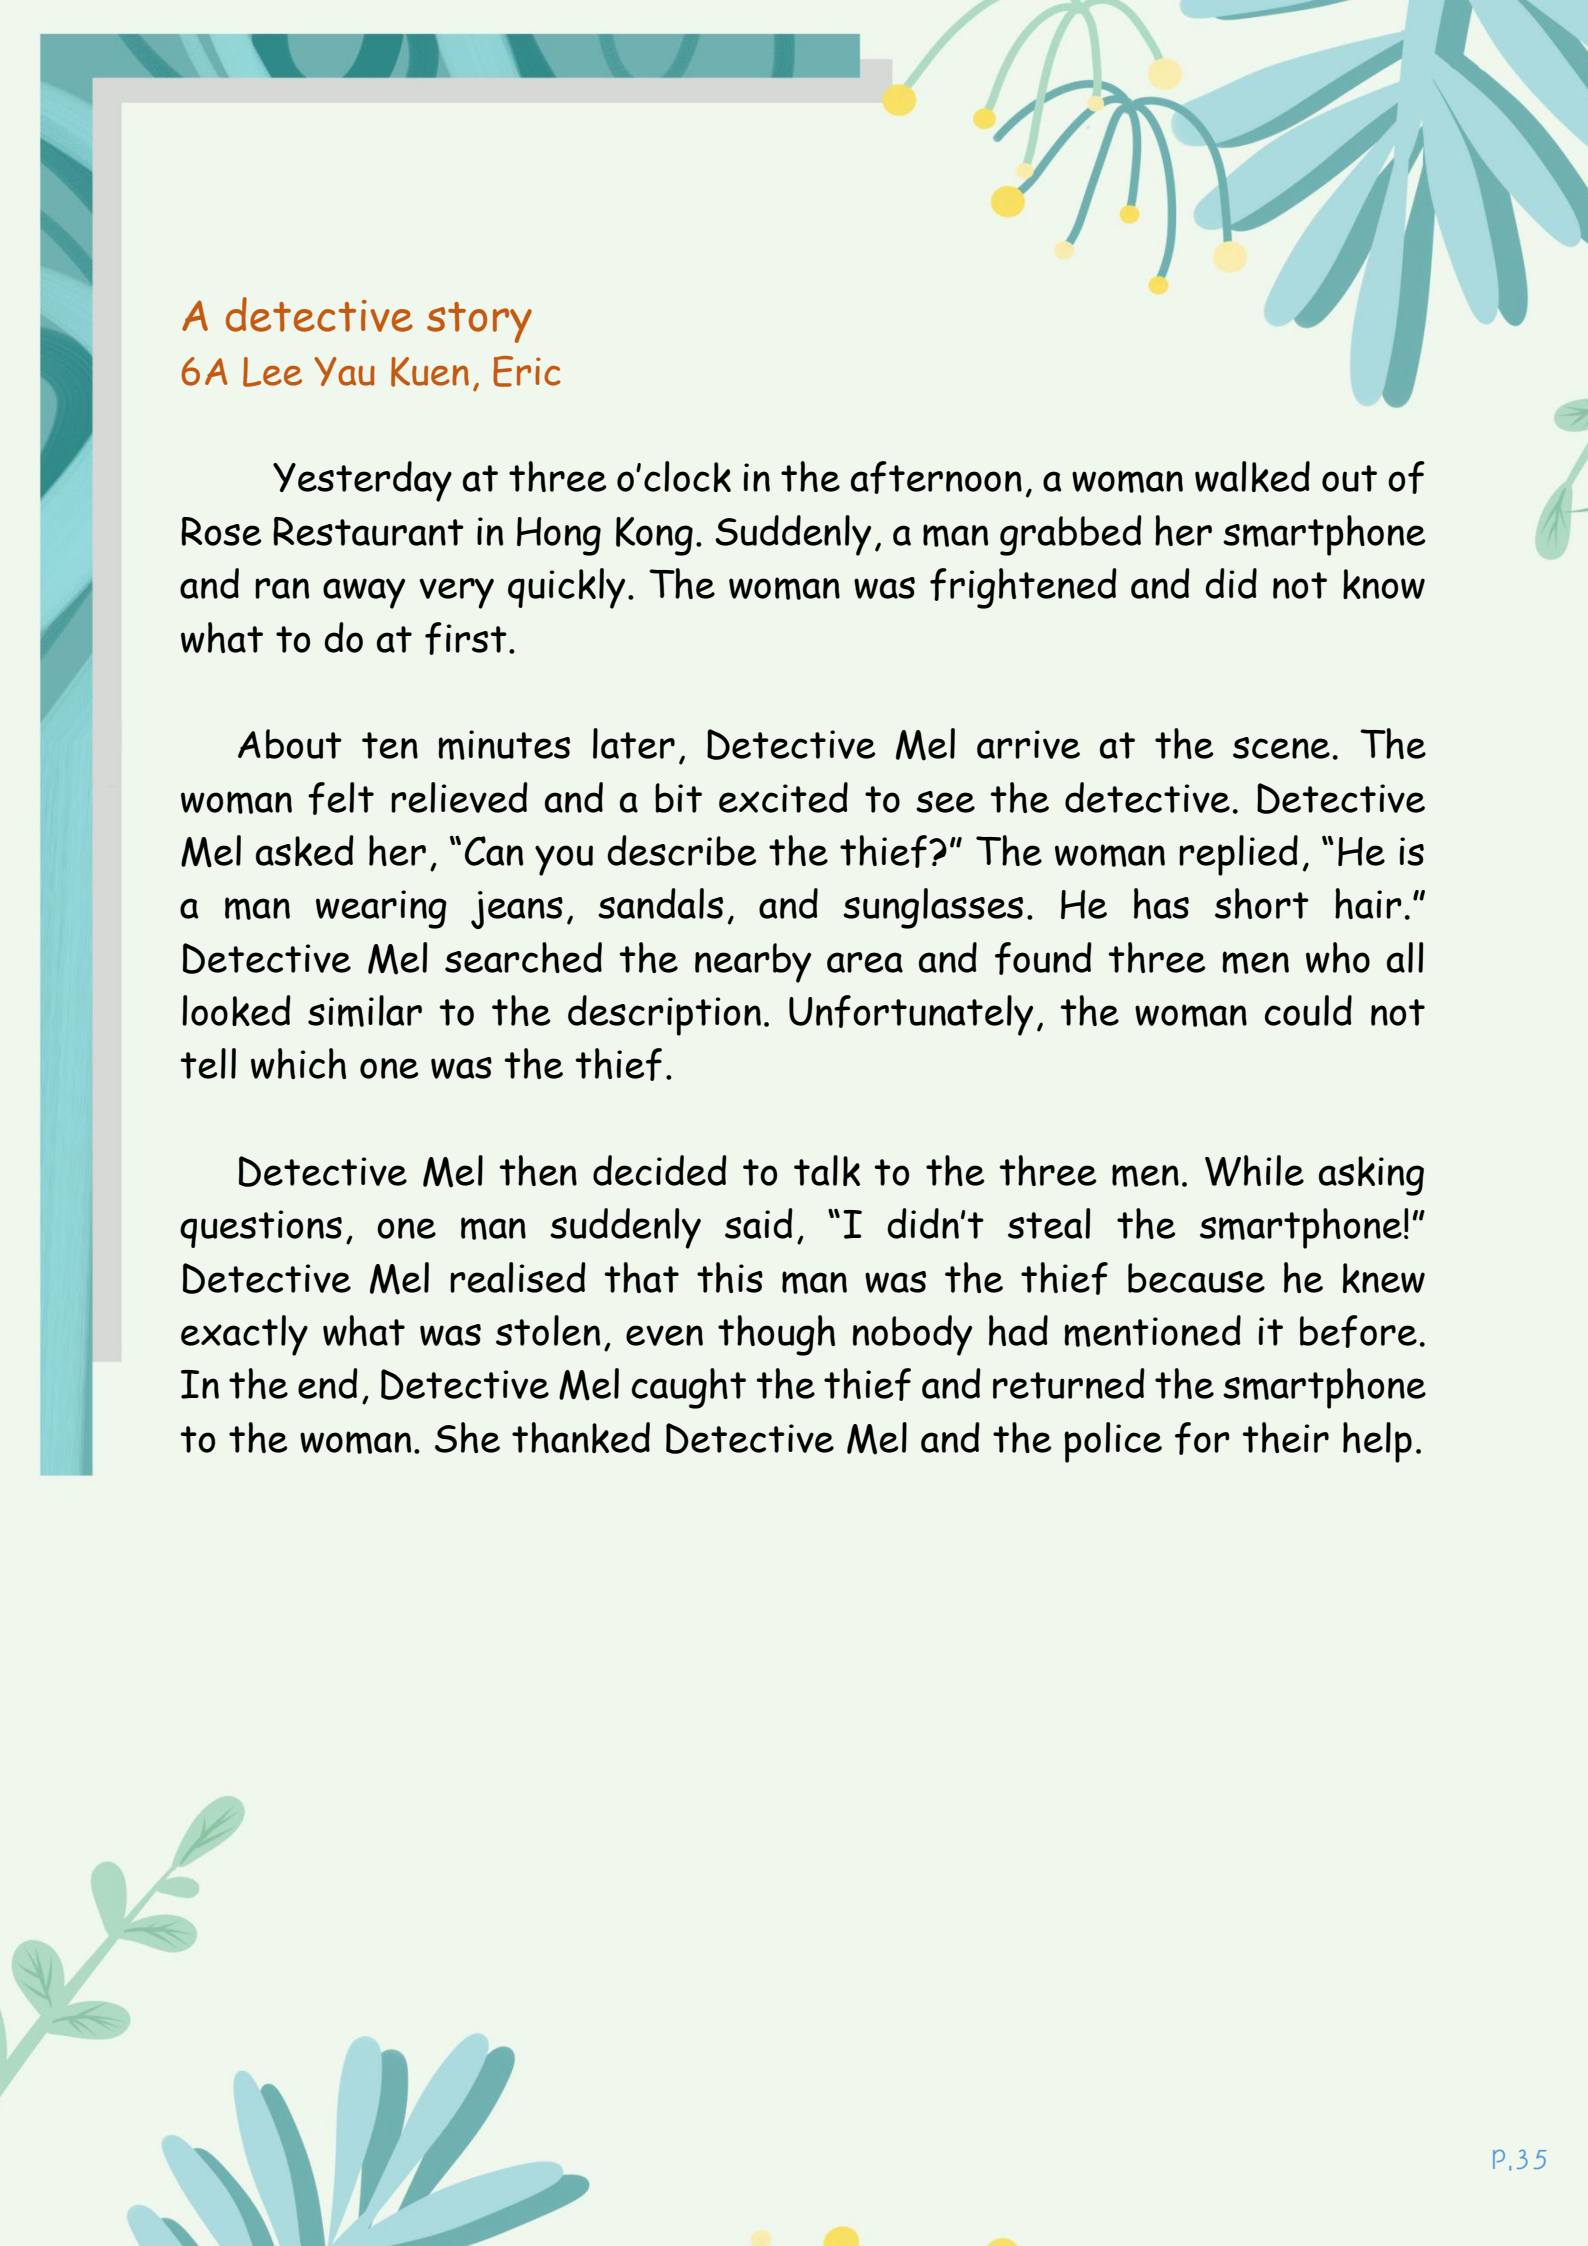

I was absent from school this morning. I was fine when I went to bed last night, but in the morning I felt terrible with a fever and a runny nose. So my mum put an ice pad on my forehead. She was worried and I felt awful.

I went to the clinic with Mum. In the clinic, there were many patients, all with different symptoms. A baby kept crying loudly in front of me. A man kept coughing and sneezing without a mask. A girl looked like she had a stomachache and seemed to be in pain. I waited for almost two hours and started to feel worse.

Finally, it was my turn. Dr Lee checked me over and looked at my tongue. He said that I had a cold. He told me to take the medicine four times a day. He advised me not to go to school. He said, "You should drink more warm water, keep warm and rest in bed."

After I saw the doctor, my best friend, Cici, visited me after school. She hoped I would recover soon. I was very disappointed to have missed the football match today. What an unlucky day!

Laura and her costume

6A Cai Mingyou, Jamy

Laura was a creative and smart girl. Last Friday, she saw a poster about a Halloween Party and a costume competition. Although she wanted to join the event, she didn't have enough money to buy the costume because it was too expensive.

Suddenly, she thought of an excellent idea. She decided to design a recycled costume. First, she cut out a black shirt with her scissors. It was made from a plastic bag. Then, she made a hat with a stapler and made a broom with some tape. Finally, she made a witch costume by herself.

The next day, Laura joined the party. She was extremely excited because she really could join the party. She saw a lot of people in their costumes. Her costume was not beautiful but very eco-friendly. She got a recycled prize at the party. She was as happy as a clam. What a wonderful day!

A bad day

6B Luo Xiaoyang, Jack

You wouldn't believe what happened to me yesterday! Before I went to school, Mum gave me an umbrella because it was going to rain. Then, I took a bus to school. On the bus, I was very tired, so I fell asleep. After a while, I woke up and got off the bus.

When I was on my way to school, it started to rain. I realized I had left my umbrella on the bus. The rain was getting heavier and heavier, and I was worried.

Suddenly, I saw a convenience store. I bought a new umbrella, which cost sixty-four dollars. I felt so sad because I had spent all my money on this umbrella. I only had six dollars left. What about my lunch? Oh no! I need to be very careful and hope I won't have another unlucky rainy day again!

A diary about my friend's birthday

Sunny

Today is Macy's birthday. Her birthday party is at one thirty at her home. I wanted to bake a cake for her. I was busy in the kitchen for the whole morning. But I was excited because I wanted to give Macy a surprise.

After twenty minutes, the cake was done. I added some cream and mango on it. It looked great! My mum came in and asked me, 'How long does it take to go from here to Macy's home by bus?' I replied, 'It takes about 30 minutes by bus.' It was time for me to set off.

Then, I took a bus to Macy's home. It was crowded. The bus was as slow as a snail because of a traffic accident. It was already one twenty; I was worried that I would be late.

In the end, I thought I could cosplay as a bear for her and make her happy. So, I jumped off the bus and went to a toy shop to buy a bear costume. Although I was late for fifteen minutes, when I cosplayed at her home, Macy was so happy. She said, 'Wow! You are beautiful!' I was satisfied because I gave Macy two surprises. What a wonderful day!

A theft at a supermarket

6C Huang Ho Cheung, Humbla

One day, when I was shopping, I saw a lady trying to steal something and put it into her handbag. She was in a dress and a pair of sneakers. I didn't care at first because I thought she was going to pay later, so I left to keep shopping.

Later, when I was going to check out, I still saw her putting things into her handbag. At this moment, I was sure she was a thief, but I didn't have any proof. But then I saw her walking out, so I said, "Hey, did you pay yet?" She noticed me, turned around, and told me, "I didn't buy anything." I could do nothing and the woman started running away. I told her to stop moving and ran as fast as lightning to call the shop assistant. I told him to look into her bag; he did that but there was only money inside. I realized I had caught a wrong lady. She did not steal. At this time, I found out that she was in a T-shirt and a skirt. She didn't have a necklace either. I pointed at the camera and asked, "Can I watch the CCTV?" The assistant said, "OK." I watched the video and saw the thief in the dress run away to Sixth Street. I soon arrived at the thief's house with the police. They opened the door and caught the thief.

In the end, it turns out the lady that I shouted at was the thief's twin. The thief was jealous that her twin was better than her, so she made this trap and tried to make her twin go to jail so she could be better than her twin. She even tried to trick her into playing and not studying. But her twin was smart and declined her request. What a terrible lady!

My dream job

6D Wong Yuk Cheung, Jimmy

When I grow up, I want to be a veterinarian. I've always loved animals- their loyalty and innocence make my heart warm. Once I helped a hurt kitten recover, and that moment made me realize I want to spend my life caring for sick or injured pets.

In this job, I'll examine animals, give them treatments, and advise owners on how to keep their companions healthy. My role model is Dr. Jane Goodall; her kindness to wildlife shows how love and patience can make a difference.

To turn my dream into reality, I'll study hard in science subjects like biology and practice taking care of stray animals in my free time. I'm determined to do everything I can- no effort is too small to help those lovely creatures!
