

A detective story

Chau Lok Hin, Issac (6D)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, a woman was talking with her smartphone. Then, suddenly a man took her phone. She was nervous and very scared because it had a lot of important emails and messages.

She went to a nearby restaurant. She was crying while she called the police.

After ten minutes, Detective Mel arrived at the restaurant.

Detective Mel told the woman to describe the thief. The woman said, 'He is in jeans and sandals, with sunglasses and short hair.'

Then, they found three men who looked similar. The woman couldn't find the thief and then Detective Mel had a great idea!

Detective Mel told the woman to give her the phone number and then she dialled her number. Then, the sound came from the guy who stole her smartphone.

At the end, they took the man to the police station.