

A birthday party for Mum

Ha Ling Fung, Jerry (5A)

Today was my mom's birthday. My sister and I organized a surprise party for her. We made a to-do list to help us remember what we needed to do. We had to tidy the living room, buy some snacks, drinks and a birthday cake and write a birthday card.

When I was at ABC supermarket, my phone rang. 'Have you bought the snacks and drinks?' my sister asked. 'Yes, I have. Have you tidied up the living room yet?' I asked. 'Yes, I have also designed a birthday card for Mum!' she replied. In the evening, the birthday party started. My dad asked me quietly, 'Where is the cake?' I shouted, 'Oh, no! I forgot to buy the cake!' My dad and sister were very disappointed.

Suddenly, the doorbell rang. I opened the door immediately. A man was standing outside the door with a beautiful cake. I remembered that we were the VIPs of a bakery which is near our house so we could get a free cake on our birthdays. It was really a big surprise for all of us!
