

My toy cat

Ho Yatong, Alisa (4D)

I had a bad day today. Today I bought a toy cat in the toy shop because I wanted to buy a toy cat for my brother's birthday next week. The toy shop was big and beautiful. There were many toys. Suddenly, I saw a big silver toy cat. It had big ears. It was very lovely. The toy cat cost 120 dollars. I bought it quickly. Then, I played with my toy cat at home happily. 'Hello!' the toy cat spoke suddenly. I was amazed. It could sing too. It was so cool.

Then, I brought my toy cat back to school and showed it to my friends. All my friends were surprised when they saw my toy cat. I was very proud. Suddenly, my teacher came. She saw my toy cat. She asked angrily, 'Whose toy cat is it?' Then she kicked the toy cat next to her. Suddenly, the toy cat was angry. It threw itself into the teacher's face.

Finally, the teacher called me to the office. I apologized to the teacher and I went back to class.
