

A birthday party for Mum

Fan Sze Yuen, Frankie (5D)

My sister and I organized a birthday party for Mum yesterday. We wanted to celebrate her birthday, so we had to buy the snacks, drinks and a birthday cake. But before I went to the supermarket, we had to write a to-do list.

After going to the supermarket, I called my sister. I said, 'Have you tidied the living room yet?' 'Yes, I have. Have you got the groceries yet?' I said, 'Yes, I have. I'm coming home now.'

Finally, when we were having a good time. Something came out of my mind. 'Oh, no! I forgot to buy the cake!' But then Mum said, 'It's okay. I don't even like cakes!' Thankfully, everything was fine in the end and we were all happy.
