A story about friendship

Jiang Yu Shing, Johnson (4A)

Last Sunday, Anna came to my home for a sleepover. I showed her my favourite doll's house but she dropped it. She said sorry immediately.

I forgave her but we had to rebuild it. We made all the things in the doll's house again from nine o'clock at night. We were very tired at midnight. I let Anna go to sleep first. Then, I finally finished it in three hours. Then I wrote a note.

When Anna woke up in the morning, she saw the note. The note said, 'Anna, I have already told my mom to buy a doll's house which is the same as mine. A delivery man has put the box outside your home. I hope you like it.'

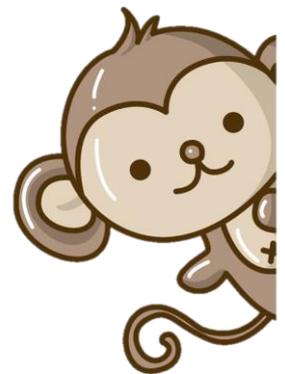

When I woke up. I found another note from Anna: Thank you for your gift! I invite you to come to my home for a sleepover too! I felt happy to see that.

He said, 'I cannot win the game but I like the toy car very much.' So I comforted him to say, 'Oh, never mind. I am glad to play with the toy car with you!'

At last, Sam and I played with the toy car together. We were happy!

Growing up

Yip Chi Yan, Emily (4B)

26th June, 2020

Sunny

I am now seven years old. A few months ago, there were many things that I couldn't do by myself. I couldn't tidy my room, comb my hair or tie my shoelaces by myself. Mum had to help me all the time.

My sister, Sally was annoyed because she thought I should do these things by myself. She said to me, 'When I was four, I could comb hair by myself. I could tie my shoelaces by myself when I was seven. You must learn to do these things by yourself.'

I felt sad and decided to learn to do things by myself. Now, I can tidy my room, comb my hair, pack my school bag and tie my shoelaces. I needed Mum's help a few months ago, but now I can do lots of things by myself. Mum, Dad and Sally are proud of me!

Cindy was the winner. I was the second in the 60 m race. The last event was the 4 X 100 m relay race. There were eight boys and eight girls in every class. Class 4D won the gold medals. Class 4A won the silver medals. Our class, Class 4C won the bronze medals.

I think Sports Day was amazing. I hope I can join the relay race next year. I will practise more.

Write to me when you have time. I'd love to hear from you.

A place in Hong Kong

Wu Tsun Ming, Ming (4C)

Disneyland is on Lantau Island. We can get there by MTR train. It takes about two hours to get there from Shenzhen. We can see many cartoon characters there. We can also play games and go on the rides there. It is a perfect place for family time.

I think Disneyland is a wonderful place in Hong Kong. Many people think it is the most popular place in this busy city.

A place in Hong Kong

Wen Ran Xiong, Eric (4D)

Disneyland is a popular place. Many people go there to play. It is near Tung Chung on Lantau Island. We can get there by MTR.

At Disneyland, we can watch the great parade and the firework display. We also can play the roller coaster, ride on the circle train and watch the 4D film. Winnie the Pooh will dance with you.

I think it is very popular and a little bit relaxing. But it is not the most relaxing place in Hong Kong.

At the Food Festival

Chen Li Sha, Angel (4D)

Yesterday Alice and Joyce went to the Tai Po Food Festival.

Joyce liked spicy food. She would like some chicken curry and some cola. Alice liked sweet food. She would like a cheesecake and some apple juice.

Then, the cook asked Joyce, ‘Would you like to try the beef satay or the chicken wings?’ Joyce would like the beef satay. Alice would like to try the fruit platter.

In the end, Joyce asked Alice, ‘What are you doing?’ ‘I’d like to try the banana, but why is it so sour?’ Alice said. ‘It is a lemon, not a banana!’ Joyce told Alice.

Dear Diary,

Today was my birthday. Mum was free, so she went out with me to celebrate my tenth birthday. We did two wonderful activities today.

In the morning, I usually do karate once a week, but I didn't have a class today because Mr. Lam was sick. I decided to go to the shopping centre with Mum. After shopping, Mum and I watched a film in the cinema. The film was about an interesting story. I love watching films. Mum loves watching films too.

In the afternoon, we went cycling in a country park. I used to go cycling once a week. I made some friends when I was cycling today. I invited them to join my birthday party. They came to my home with birthday presents. How enjoyable! What a fantastic birthday! I'm very tired but happy. I hope I can have an amazing birthday every year. Today was an enjoyable day.

Today is my birthday. I went to Ocean Park with my father and mother.

I saw some dolphins, penguins and sea lions dancing and heading balls. Penguins also slid on the ice. I rode on the roller coaster and windsurfed with my father and mother. I used to go to Ocean Park with my father and mother once a year. Now I go to Ocean Park with them twice a year.

Then, I rode the cable car with my father and mother. We took about twenty photos. After that, I felt hungry. We went to a restaurant to eat a big meal celebrating my birthday. I ate Buffalo wings for my starter and roast chicken for my main course. I ate a chocolate cheesecake and drank cola for my dessert and drink. My good friends suddenly came to celebrate my birthday. It was wonderful.

I felt excited today because my good friends came to celebrate my birthday. I thanked my parents and my good friends for celebrating my birthday.

In the restaurant, the waiter asked Sophie, 'What would you like?' She replied, 'Can I have the Buffalo wings please?' The waiter asked, 'Which drink would you prefer?' She answered, 'I would prefer water to coffee.'

The Buffalo wings were yummy. Sophie asked for the bill. The waiter said, 'Sixty-eight dollars please.' Suddenly, she found that she had only twenty dollars in her wallet. She replied, 'Sorry, I do not have enough money.'

In the end, she told the waiter that she will call her mum, because she forgot to bring her mobile phone. She asked, 'Excuse me, can I use your phone, please? I forgot to bring my mobile.' The waiter replied, 'OK.' Sophie's mum paid the bill in the end and she said, 'You have to promise me that you won't be careless again!' Sophie replied, 'Yes, mum!'

Eating at a Chinese restaurant

Huen Pak Shun, Hannah (5A)

Today was an unhappy day.

This afternoon, my parents and I went to a Chinese restaurant for lunch. However, there was a boy who sat with his mum at the table next to us. They were impolite.

At first, the boy spoke impolitely when the food was still in his mouth! Very disgusting! His mum even threw a piece of bone on the floor rudely. She made the floor dirty. Then, the boy ran around in the restaurant. His mum talked on the phone loudly. When we kindly reminded them to not be rude, they even said, 'None of your business.' They were very excessive.

When the boy was running, he knocked into a waiter. The noodles spilt onto the waiter and the boy was scolded by the waiter. The boy apologized. The waiter said, 'It's okay but you must follow the rules in the restaurant in the future! So you will not cause any trouble.'

Careless Sophie

Shum Yan Yip, Rita (5B)

Last Sunday was a bad day. Sophie finished a running race so she felt very hungry. She went to a restaurant for lunch.

The waiter asked Sophie, 'What would you prefer?' 'I like spicy food, can I have a dish of Buffalo wings, please?' said Sophie. 'OK, anything else would you prefer?' the waiter asked. 'Emm, I like sweet food too. I would like a dessert. What dessert do you serve here?' Sophie asked politely. The waiter said, 'We serve chocolate cheesecake and blueberry cheesecake. Which one would you prefer?' 'I would prefer the chocolate cheesecake to the blueberry cheesecake. Thank you very much!' replied Sophie.

After ten minutes, Sophie finished her lunch. Then, the waiter asked Sophie, 'How are the Buffalo wings?' 'They are very yummy! I like them.' 'How is the chocolate cheesecake?' asked the waiter. 'It's too sweet for me. There is a big piece of chocolate on the cheesecake.' 'I am very sorry,' said the waiter.

At last, Sophie asked for the bill. The waiter said, 'Sixty-eight dollars please.' But Sophie did not have enough money. She felt so shocked and worried that there was only twenty dollars in her wallet. At that moment, Sophie's brother came in the restaurant and saw her. He paid the bill for Sophie. She was relieved.

Sophie was lucky that her brother came at a right time. Although her brother scolded her for being so careless, she was still happy. It was a bad but unforgettable day for Sophie!

Today I had lunch with my family in a Chinese restaurant in the afternoon. We planned to enjoy a relaxing lunch there but a boy and his mum who sat at the table next to us were impolite.

The boy spoke with food in his mouth and his mum threw a piece of bone to the ground. Then, when they were full, the boy ran around the restaurant and his mum talked loudly on her phone. Many people were looking at them but they continued. To be frank, I was fed up with them. I felt so annoyed.

At that time, the boy knocked into a waiter and the hot noodles spilt onto the boy. He was burnt and got hurt. We were worried. Luckily, he was not seriously hurt and his mum felt sorry. She immediately came over and looked after her son.

I hope the boy and his mum have learnt their lessons and will behave in the public well next time.

Then, she asked the waiter for the bill. ‘Sixty-eight dollars, please,’ the waiter said. Sophie took out her wallet and found that she did not have enough money to pay. She was worried.

At last, Sophie called her mum to pay for the bill. ‘You should be careful next time,’ her mum said.

My New Life in Hong Kong

Liu Yi Sha, Lisa (5D)

Dear Kevin,

How are you?

I have been to Hong Kong for three months. I feel Hong Kong is a modern city. There are tall buildings. However, I feel Hong Kong is very noisy and crowded.

The cuisines in Hong Kong and in the UK are similar. We all have fast food shops. People like to eat apple pies and chicken wings. Also, the languages in Hong Kong and in the UK are similar. We can speak English.

However, the religions in Hong Kong and in the UK are different. Hong Kong people go to temples, but British people go to churches.

I find that the colour of Hong Kong people's skin is yellow. I like living in Hong Kong.

Please write soon.

Love,

Toby

‘Let’s sell flags together. It’s fun and we can also help the others!’ Susan said. ‘No, of course not! I don’t want to care about them!’ answered Lily. ‘Do you want to donate money to the charity? You ought to do something to help the others!’ Susan said. ‘No! Helping people is silly!’ Lily shouted impatiently and went away immediately. She was very selfish!

When she arrived home, her mum was watching a documentary about an earthquake in Japan. ‘How poor they are!’ her mum said. But Lily felt bored. Mum said angrily, ‘You never care about the others!’

Lily went to bed after dinner. She dreamed about an earthquake struck Hong Kong and it destroyed the houses. Her house collapsed so she needed to live in a tent and she just had a blanket to keep warm at night. It was cold! And there was no clean water or food, she was so frightened that she woke up. She thought about how poor the people were and decided to help them.

From then on, she always buys flags and helps the others. She finds that helping others in the basis of happiness. She feels very satisfied after helping the others!

I was absent from school today. I felt terrible when I woke up this morning. I have got a fever and a runny nose. I could not go to school to play with my friends. Mum checked my temperature with a thermometer. She was worried and decided to take me to see a doctor.

At the clinic, there were lots of patients. Somebody got a cough, somebody got a stomachache and somebody got a fever. So I needed to wait for an hour to see the doctor! How awful!

Finally, it was my turn. After telling the doctor the symptoms I had, Dr. Wong told me that I have got the flu! He said, ‘Don’t worry, take the medicine three times a day and take more rest. Drink more warm water instead of drinking cold drinks. Then, you will recover after a few days. Also you should wear a mask when you go out.’

I need to stay at home for a week. Mum told me to follow Dr. Wong’s advice and wear more clothes. She also told me not to stay up late because my body is weak. I will be busy in these days because I have to catch up a lot of homework! I will listen to my mum's advice.

Being sick is so terrible!

Save the Earth

Chan Yui Chit, Oscar (6B)

The Earth is now facing severe air pollution and land pollution. Why? Many factories produce toxic air. Cars and planes pollute the air. All these things cause air pollution on the Earth. As for land pollution, many people buy a lot of things that they don't need. They soon get tired of them and throw them in the rubbish bin. People consume a lot of plastic bottles, plastic utensils and plastic bags. This causes land pollution. So, it is time we should protect the Earth.

How can we stop air pollution at home? We can switch off the lights and computers after use and turn off the electrical appliances when we don't need them to save energy. Saving energy can stop the air pollution because the factories will produce less toxic air. We can collect old clothes and send them to people who need them and recycle newspapers, cans and plastic bottles to reduce waste in order to reduce the land pollution.

We can also take actions at school to protect the Earth. We can plant trees at school so that we can create a green environment for better air quality. We can launch a 'Green Day' to promote environmental protection to students.

In a community, we can donate old books, toys and clothes to the needy. This can reduce waste. Also, we can only buy things that we need.

Why do we need to save the Earth? It is because all the pollution is caused by humans. Unless we protect the Earth, animals, plants and even humans will die soon. So we should be responsible and act now.

Developing good habits

Hu Yuet Kiu, Joe (6B)

I am going to develop some good habits to improve my health and make me a better person.

I have some bad habits. I always wake up late in the morning, so I have no time to eat breakfast and I skip it. I should develop good habits that I have to go to bed early, so that I can wake up early and have enough time to eat breakfast.

I have another bad habit. I always bite my fingernails. Biting fingernails always makes me ill because fingernails are covered in bacteria. I ought to cut my fingernails regularly.

Playing computer games for a long time is one of my bad habits. Playing for a long time damages my eyes. I think I can play some boring computer games so I will be not interested in playing computer games anymore.

If I achieve all the above good habits. I will become healthier and smarter.

Save the Earth

Tang Cheuk Him, Marcus (6D)

The Earth is facing many environmental problems, such as, air pollution, land pollution, climate change, animal extinction and habitat destruction. Nature is in great danger unless we find a good solution.

We can do things at home to reduce these problems, such as replacing outdoor lamps with motion sensor lights. We can use less the air-conditioner and use the fan more. These actions can reduce air pollution and save energy.

We can also do things to reduce pollution at school too. We can use the air-conditioner less. We can put recyclable items into the school's recycling bins. We can also donate old books to the school and put them in the reading corner so that we can make full use of resources.

We need to save the Earth for a better quality of life and for our health.
