

A detective story about a smartphone theft

Lam Hiu Tung, Hugo (6D)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, there was a theft outside the Rose Restaurant. A man took a woman's mobile phone.

Then, the woman was shocked and asked a shopkeeper for help.

The woman went to Rose Restaurant and called the police.

Ten minutes later, Detective Mel arrived. The woman was happy when she saw Detective Mel.

Next, the woman described the thief. The man was in jeans and sandals, with short hair and sunglasses. After that, Detective Mel caught three men who matched the descriptions. But they looked similar. The woman could not identify the thief.

Then, Detective Mel got an idea! She dialed the woman's phone number. 'Ring, ring...'

In the end, they found that the man who was drinking was the thief. The woman got back her smartphone and Detective Mel sent the thief to the police station.

