

A birthday party for Mum

Lau Hin Wang, Season (5B)

Last Saturday, it was our mum's birthday. My sister and I organized a birthday party for her because we wanted to make her happy.

At the supermarket, I received a phone call from my sister. 'Have you bought the things for the party yet?' she said. 'Yes, I have already bought them,' I said.

When the birthday party began, a lot of people showed up. They were excited about the party but something terrible happened. I forgot to buy the birthday cake. A lot of people blamed me. 'Are these guys disappointed just because of a single cake? How funny!' I thought at first. And then I found out that was the most important part of the party. I realized I ruined the party! I felt bad.

Then Mum said, 'Nothing is more important than a family.' So we baked a cake together but we failed. Luckily, Mum said, 'It's okay! At least I have fun!' We all laughed.